

News National

Hisarcıkıoğlu says constitutional amendment is inevitable

Turkey has focused on the constitutional amendments which will be fulfilled within the scope of Turkey's EU accession process.

Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdoğan attended the general assembly meeting of the Union of Turkish Chambers & Commodity Exchanges (TOBB) with his 12 ministers. TOBB Chairman Rifat Hisarcıkıoğlu said that there was need for amendments for development of Turkey.

- News
- National
- Diplomacy
- Politics
- World
- Business
- Interviews
- Columnists
- Op-Ed
- Arts & Culture
- Expat Zone
- Features
- Travel
- Leisure
- Life
- Cartoons
- Weird But True
- Sports
- Turkish Press Review
- Today's think tanks

- Turkey in
- Foreign Press
- [The New York Times] Stakes high in Armenia-Turkey talks
- [Haaretz] Turkey drops Gaza probe
- [The New York Times] Turkey and Armenia move to ease tensions
- [Press TV] Turkey defends its pro-Iran stance
- [The Washington Post] EU asks

03 May 2009, Sunday

TODAY'S ZAMAN WITH WIRES İSTANBUL

The most read articles of this category

- Dynamic Cabinet to espouse reforms
- New FM Davutoğlu to build order-instituting role for Turkey
- Turkey to face pressure over US nukes on its soil
- Turkish women's awareness of gender equality increasing
- Al-Sadr asks Ankara to play bigger role in Middle East
- Ergenekon suspect released for health reasons enjoys time on the outside
- AK Party will try a new tactic to change the Constitution
- Sri Lankan rebels accuse army of 64 shelling deaths
- Turkey, Germany, Hungary give support for 2010 ECOC
- Mexico killer flu cases easing but pandemic still likely

The most read articles

- Dynamic Cabinet to espouse reforms
- New FM Davutoğlu to build order-instituting role for Turkey
- Turkey to face pressure over US nukes on its soil
- Turkish women's awareness of gender equality increasing
- Al-Sadr asks Ankara to play bigger role in Middle East
- Ergenekon suspect released for health reasons enjoys time on the outside
- AK Party will try a new tactic to change the Constitution
- Sri Lankan rebels accuse army of 64 shelling deaths
- Turkish-Armenian writer says Obama's words should not worry Turkey
- Turkey, Germany, Hungary give support for 2010 ECOC

Other titles of News National

- Turkish women's awareness of gender equality increasing
- Ergenekon suspect released for health reasons enjoys time on the outside

- CHP to take demining bill to Constitutional Court
- Turkey to face pressure over US nukes on its soil
- DTP goes on hunger strike
- Freedom House: Turkey's press status 'partly free'
- Paksüt faces criminal complaint for leaking info from top court
- Measures taken at Turkish border crossings against Swine Flu
- Turkey-press scan
- Custom guards impound huge amount of heroin
- Turkey stockpiles swine flu medicine

© Feza Gazetecilik A.Ş. 2007, Ahmet Taner Kışlalı Cad. No: 6, Bahçelievler - İstanbul 34194 Turkey, +90 (212) 454 1454, +90 (212) 454 1497(fax)