World Turkish Entrepreneurs' Convention begins in İstanbul

The "World Turkish Entrepreneurs' Convention" began in İstanbul on Friday.

The gathering with the theme "Turkey: A Global Power" organized by the Foreign Economic Relations Board (DEİK) and the Foreign Trade Undersecretariat takes place at the Lutfi Kırdar Congress & Exhibition Center.

Union of Turkish Chambers & Commodity Exchanges (TOBB) Chairman Rifat Hisarcıkloğlu, who also serves as the president of the World Turkish Business Council, and State Minister Kursad Tüzmen will make opening remarks of the convention.

An interactive session will be held later in the day with the participation of Turkish State Minister & Deputy Prime Minister Hayati Yazıcı, State Minister & Deputy Prime Minister Nazım Ekren, State Minister Egemen Bağış, State Minister Tüzmen and State Minister Said Yazıcıoğlu on "Role of Entrepreneurs and Lobby Activities".

A gala dinner will be hosted in honor of the participants and President Abdullah Gül will also partake in the dinner.

A number of Turkish entrepreneurs from 80 countries are attending the two-day convention.
