

Turkish Premier Meets With Businessmen in Polish Capital

Thursday, 14 May 2009

Turkish Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdogan met with members of a Turkish-Polish business association in Warsaw, Poland on Wednesday.

Erdogan held talks with members of the Turkish-Polish Businessmen's Association and a number of businessmen who will attend Turkey Economic Forum meeting. Turkish State Minister Zafer Caglayan and Halim Mete, vice president of the Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Turkey (TOBB), attended the gathering at Warsaw's Marriot Hotel.

During the meeting, Turkish businessmen with investments in Poland informed Erdogan about the problems they faced in this country, officials said.
